

Johns Creek HS currently has large, printed posters of the most recent draft redistricting maps. These were the maps provided before the round two input meetings. The maps are on display in the school media center. The maps are viewable during school hours if one checks in as a visitor in the front office.